Presidential Trip Announcement

SUNSET PROV. - The Office of the President is excited to announce that tomorrow morning, President Clark Morber will fly to Las Vegas in order to represent Soundland in a biennial diplomatic conference of nations this August 5th. President Clark Morber will fly into Harry Reid International Airport in Las Vegas tomorrow in anticipation of the diplomatic conference Microcon, which is scheduled to take place through August 5th to 7. The President will represent Soundlandian interests abroad and meet with foreign leaders, among other goals. This trip represents the Morber Administration's dedication to diplomacy, including as a way to promote democracy abroad, and enlarging Soundland's presence and influence on the world stage.
